(X)

In G. O. No. 3574 Misc. Law (General) dated 1st November 1933, the provisions of the Town Nuisances Act were temporarily extended to the village of Subrahmania in the Puttur Taluk of this District on the occasion of the Cattle fair and Shasti festival in 1933. The Cattle fair this year has already commenced on 21.11.1934 and will last till 6th December 1934. This will be followed by the annual Shasti festival commencing from 7th December 1934 and lasting till 12th December 1934. I request that the provisions of the Town Nuisances Act may be extended this year also and immediate orders issued as the fair has commenced I submit herewith a draft notification for approval and publication.

Urgent

2. Last year the Act was put in force at the request of the Taluk Board, after I had satisfied myself that the Board intended to provide sufficient latrines for the people likely to come to the fair. This year as there was no Taluk Board no application was made. But the Sub Magistrate who as usual is camping at Kulgunda in Subramania village for the fair has reported that the Police are putting up cases under the [illegible]. It [illegible]
